

Acknowledgment

To all who stood with us during this time, To those who visited, comforted, and encouraged us; To those who supported us with food, finances, time, and thoughtful gifts; To the Christian family for your unceasing prayers and spiritual support; To our relatives, neighbours, friends, and all who made meaningful contributions in countless ways to ensure Cucuu received a dignified and heartfelt sendoff

Please accept this as our sincere and personal expression of gratitude.

"May you live every day of your life, and love each day that you live."

TRIBUTES

Grandma,
You were a blessing from God —
A light that shone with love, grace, and faith.
Your prayers carried us through life's storms,
And your words were a gentle echo of heaven's wisdom.
You taught us to trust in God
To walk in kindness and to love deeply.
Though our hearts are heavy,
We know this isn't goodbye —
For we believe you're resting in the arms of Jesus,
Free from pain, wrapped in eternal peace.
Heaven gained an angel when you left,
And we gained a guardian watching from above.
Your voice may be silent, but your spirit sings in us —
A song of faith, hope, and everlasting love.
We'll carry your light in our hearts forever,
And one day, Grandma, we'll meet again —
Where there's no sorrow, no tears, no goodbyes...
Only joy in the presence of our Lord.
We loved you and even in death we will always love you. You will remain engraved in our hearts.

Rest in peace, dearest Grandma.
Your legacy of love will never fade.

The Late Monicah Nyambura Mbugua

BIRTH

The late Monicah Nyambura Mbugua was born in Ngamba village (Kagwe Sub-location) by her parents The late Wamahia Kiarie and Elizabeth Wairimu Wamahia. She was their second-born child.

She grew up with her late sisters Hannah Wangari Runo and Mary Njeri Wamithi, and her late brothers Stephen Wanyoike Wamahia, Charles Kamau Wamahia, John Ng'ang'a Wamahia, and Julius Maina Wamahi.

She was also a stepsister to Mary Njeri Kaberi and Joseph Kimani Wamahia, as well as late stepbrothers Stephen Wanyoike Wamahia and John Ng'ang'a Wamahia.

CHILDHOOD

She grew up as a hardworking child who helped her parents with household chores.

MARRIAGE

In the year 1957, she got married to her beloved husband, the late Elijah Mbugua Mugo. That same year, they were blessed with their first child, late Jackson Mugo Mbugua.

After that, they were blessed with eight more children: Stephen Muchiri, Moses Njihia, Francis Wanyoike, Serah Kuria, John Ngigi, Paul Kamau, Naomi Njau, and Margaret Ngure.

CHURCH LIFE

The late Monicah Nyambura Mbugua joined the A.I.P.C.A. Church Kagwe and was baptized in 1973 by Pastor Joel Kairu. She became a devoted Christian who served her church faithfully with her possessions and time.

On May 29, 1983, she was confirmed by Bishop George Muhia and allowed to partake in the Lord's Table (Holy Communion).

She served the church diligently until old age made it difficult for her to continue attending. The church continued to serve her at home, anointing her with holy oil and offering her spiritual care.

ILLNESS AND PASSING

In March, she began to feel unwell and was taken to Kiambu Hospital. Later, she was transferred to Kikuyu Hospital and afterward returned home, where she continued to receive care.

On the night of October 10, 2025, at around 8:00 p.m., she peacefully went to be with the Lord at her home.

The late Monicah Nyambura Mbugua rested in the Lord at the age of 87 years.

She leaves behind eight children — five sons and three daughters — as well as many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

*The Lord gave Monicah Nyambura Mbugua, and now the Lord has taken her back.
Blessed be the name of the Lord. AMEN.*
