

Acknowledgment

To all who stood with us during this time, To those who visited, comforted, and encouraged us; To those who supported us with food, finances, time, and thoughtful gifts; To the Christian family for your unceasing prayers and spiritual support; To our relatives, neighbors, friends, and all who made meaningful contributions in countless ways to ensure Virginia received a dignified and heartfelt sendoff

Please accept this as our sincere and personal expression of gratitude.

"May you live every day of your life, and love each day that you live."

TRIBUTES

TRIBUTE FROM THE FAMILY

It is with sorrow we have to say good bye to you mum ! You have been a pillar of guidance, correction and a source of strength

You have been the best mum we could ever ask for you always encouraged us to be united, supportive and loving one another. We pray God's guidance to always follow your instructions and live happily as you always wished for us

Though you are no longer with us, your love and values will continue to live through us. We will cherish your memory in the way we care for each other and honor the family you built. Your legacy is not just in words but in the lives you shaped and the hearts you touched. Rest peacefully,

Mum — your presence will forever be felt in our lives.

TRIBUTE FROM GRANDCHILDREN

Cucu, you were a truly great woman. You cared for us deeply and always encouraged us to work hard, especially in our education. Your support and guidance meant so much to us. You were always present in our lives, and your love brought the family together.

We will forever cherish the time we spent with you and the lessons you taught us through your words and actions. You will always hold a special place in our hearts. We loved you dearly, but God loved you more.

Farewell, Cucu, .May your soul rest in eternal peace.

Eulogy Of

The Late Virginia Wangui Ngugi

BIRTH

Virginia Wangui Ngugi was born in 28th day of February 1961 to her parents, the late Michael Mbuthia and Lucy Njeri. She was born in Elburgon, Nakuru County. She was raised together with her siblings: Hannah Nyambura Boro, Beth Muthoni Ngoci, John Mwaniki, Joseph Muchori, and Mary Wambui. She was the third-born.

CHILDHOOD

As a child, Virginia helped her parents with household chores just like other children of that time, including farming and fetching firewood.

EDUCATION

Virginia began her education at Gakenge Primary School in 1967 and studied up to Standard Three.

MARRIAGE

Virginia Wangui married her beloved husband, the late Norman Ngugi, in 1985 in a traditional Gikuyu ceremony. They were blessed with their firstborn, Michael Mbuthia Ngugi. Later, they were blessed with three more children: Mary Wangari, John Kungu, and George Ng'ang'a. She was also a loving grandmother to Hannah Wangari, John Kungu, Joyce Wanjiru, Samuel Muiruri, and George Ng'ang'a.

CHURCH LIFE

Virginia Wangui Ngugi was introduced to the church in 1961 by her parents and was baptized by Rev. D.K. Njuguna. In 2007, she was confirmed into full church membership by Archdeacon John K. Gitau at the AIPCA Kagwe Church.

ILLNESS

Virginia began experiencing health complications in 2018. She received treatment at various health facilities including Kagwe Dispensary, Kiambu Level 5 Hospital, and Kenyatta University Referral Hospital. Afterwards, she continued receiving care at home until her passing.

HER PASSING

In November, Virginia's condition worsened and she peacefully rested in the Lord at her home during the early hours of the morning. She leaves behind her four children, many grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She passed away at the age of 64.

What can we say, it's the Lord who gave Virginia Wangui Ngugi, and He has taken her back. May His name be praised. Amen.
